

19 November 2008
 Unique users: 42,800

GO powered by Google

CRÈME DE LA CREPE AT COVENT GARDEN

Sink your teeth into a delicious crêpe from cool Covent Garden eatery, Crème de la Crêpe. Following their success at London's Borough Food Market they've brought their scrumptious pancakes to the West End. They've got it all, from delicious sweet & savoury pancakes to fresh salads and drinks - complete with kooky cups featuring personalised designs by celebrity fans including Gwen Stefani, Claudia Schiffer, and Heidi Klum. The new snack stop is perfect for a healthy pick me up. For further information, menus or to create your own crepe visit www.cremedelacrepe.co.uk

 Published 19.11.2008

RELATED TAGS:
 food & drink

CAMITZ SPARKLING VODKA

If you like vodka then you'll love Camitz, the new sparkling vodka from Sweden. A world first, we got to try it in Beach Blanket Babylon paired with canapés, in cocktails and drunk neat. If you're planning a Christmas get together and want something special this cork popping bottle can be bought direct through Coe Vintners, or enjoyed in luxury venues across London. Don't miss it. For more visit www.camitzvodka.com

Published 17.11.2008

RELATED TAGS:
 cocktail | drinks

